WHERE YOUR GIFT GOES

Unrestricted bequests allow us to use your donation where the Playhouse needs support the most. However, it is also possible for you to specify how you would like the contribution to be used.

For example you could consider leaving a Gift to support:

- The Playhouse's performances and productions

- The Playhouse's extensive Creative Engagement Programme

- The Playhouse's Furnace programme to support developing artists

Every contribution, large or small, is deeply appreciated and will make a fundamental difference to the future of Leeds Playhouse.

THE LEGACY CLUB

Leaving a Gift is an important personal decision and there is absolutely no obligation to tell us if you do decide to support our work. However, should you wish to, we would be very happy to talk you through the options to ensure your Gift is used in a way that is most appropriate for you. We also want to make sure that you are properly thanked, and that your Gift is remembered for many years to come.

Please enquire about our Living Legacy Programme which allows us to thank you for your commitment to making a bequest, please contact Vici Nicholson.

HOW TO LEAVE A GIFT IN YOUR WILL

To remember Leeds Playhouse in your Will, a short paragraph, or clause can be added when your Will is being prepared. If you want to add Leeds Playhouse to your existing Will, your solicitor simply attaches a written instruction, called a codicil. This should be done by your solicitor as you may inadvertently invalidate your Will if you make the changes yourself.

If you have not yet made a Will, it is advisable to make an appointment with a solicitor. Without one, you are not in control of what happens to your assets. If you do not have a solicitor, you could ask a family member or friend to suggest one.

There are three main ways you may wish to consider a bequest to Leeds Playhouse or you can leave a combination of the three.

- Residuary bequest
A Gift made of what is left of your estate after all other Gifts have been handed out and debts paid off. To do this you may leave either the total of the residue or a percentage.
- Pecuniary bequest
A Gift made of a fixed sum of money
- Specific bequest
A particular named item left as a Gift in your Will. For example, a piece of jewellery, furniture or a painting
